

Clay County Historical Preservation Board

May 15, 2014

Present: Julia Cramer, Cindy Cheatwood, Cynthia Stone, William Randall, Gayward Hendry, Kevin Hooper.

Carolyn Morgan (Clay Co. Planning and Development),

Guests: Jerry Casale, Edwin Wingate

The meeting was called to order at 7:10 pm.

The nominating committee proposed a slate of officers to be voted on in June.

Chariman, Julia Cramer V. Chairman, Cynthia Stone Secretary, Cindy Cheatwood

Gayward motioned to accept the slate of officers; William Randall seconded. Motion passed.

The election will be at the June meeting.

The April minutes were read. C. Cheatwood motioned to accept the minutes. Cynthia Stone seconded. Motion to accept the April minutes passed.

Edwin Wingate spoke about a Confederate entrenchment on his property at Lake Asbury. Battery Bluff is 4 ft. deep on his property. This Confederate entrenchment was registered in 1997. He would like this board to pursue purchasing a historical marker to commemorate the Confederacy in this area of Clay County. Most of the gun placement is gone. Charlie Barco had land; sold it; bulldozed the mound of dirt and ditch. There was no skirmish there. Mr. Wingate distributed the board copies of his research.

Cynthia Stone motioned to pursue this marker for the Wingate property. Cindy Cheatwood seconded. Motion passed.

The Dedication Ceremony Recognizing the history of the Town of Orange Park is Saturday, May 17, 2014, 10:30 am.

Carolyn Morgan reported that we must have purchase orders prior to any purchase. Angela Goodermote is the contact at the county office.

We discussed the May 3rd Preservation Day. Clarke House, Doc Adams-Doc Stone house, St. Mary's Church was well attended along with visitors to Penney Farms and the Green Cove Springs museum.

Cynthia Stone motioned to adjourn. Kevin seconded.

Meeting adjourned at 8:20 pm.

Submitted by,

